

A 3D coordinate system is shown with three axes: x, y, and z. The x-axis is horizontal, the y-axis is vertical, and the z-axis is diagonal. The origin is marked with a small cube. The axes are labeled with 'x', 'y', and 'z' respectively.